

Respect —Key Skills

I listen to other people's views

I know all people are different and that everyone has different talents and abilities

My beliefs motivate me to do something

I can appreciate and respond to the wonders of the world, including nature, science & technology and the arts

I treat all people equally

I know some of the things I can do to help my community

I do things to help my community

I know how people's beliefs affect how they behave

I appreciate the ideas and beliefs of different races and cultures